St. Pete-Clearwater International (PIE) 2015 Passenger Report – PIE Shatters All Time Record with 1,645,402 passengers – a 32% annual increase!

1,645,402 is the final count for 2015, breaking the all time passenger record previously set in 2004 (1,333,069)! PIE serves 52 non-stop cities, setting another record for the airport. Airport Director Tom Jewsbury states “We are thrilled and want to thank our passengers, employees, and our airport partners, especially Allegiant, for its rapid growth and confidence in our destination! We look forward to a great year and continued improvements to your travel experience at our airport.” Pinellas County Board of County Commissioners and Tourist Development Council Chair Charlie Justice adds “Pinellas County has so much to offer our visitors and St. Pete-Clearwater International and its airline partners provide an easy, friendly gateway to Tampa Bay. With low-cost travel packages that Allegiant offers, we will see continued success for tourism, as well as great options for our local community to travel.”
