St. Pete-Clearwater International Airport (PIE)
Quarterly Concert Series presented by
The New Music Conflagration –Friday, March 10th 12:30-2:00 PM

PIE is delighted to present its third concert in a new series at the airport by The New Music Conflagration, led by Elizabeth Baker. On Friday, March 10th from 12:30-2:00 PM Classical Guitarist Sebastian Johnson will perform in our Baggage Claim facility for arriving passengers. The public is invited to attend.

Sebastian Johnson, born in Massena, NY, has been playing guitar since he was 12. He holds an Associate's Degree in Music from St. Petersburg College and a Bachelor's degree in Music from the University of Tampa. Sebastian has studied guitar under Jaybo Key (St. Pete), Joe Braccio (SPC) and John Demas (UT). Most recently, Sebastian has been performing as a guitarist for Busch Garden's since 2011, entertaining hundreds of thousands of spectators every year. He also plays lead guitar in a Flamenco Fusion band called House of Leros and performs with the Grace Family Church. Sebastian works as a guitar/bass/ukulele instructor at Don Banks Music in South Tampa, Florida and also teaches at Community Bible Baptist Church in St. Petersburg, Florida.
