St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport (PIE) announces expanded service from CanJet Airlines

CanJet, Canada's Low Fare Airline, will increase its Florida flying during the fall and winter of 2005/2006. "Consumer and agency demand for our Florida product has grown dramatically since we first launched service between Halifax and St. Petersburg in February 2003," said Doug Newson, CanJet's Marketing & Sales Director.

CanJet will launch non-stop flights on a staggered basis beginning November 4, 2005 and will add services in December, January and February. The final St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport winter flights are scheduled for completion on May 28, 2006.

The following is CanJet's fall & winter flight schedule:

Halifax - St. Petersburg-Clearwater

- weekly non-stop Saturday service November 5, 2005 to May 27, 2006
- weekly Friday service via Toronto November 4, 2005 to May 26, 2006
- weekly Monday service via Toronto December 19, 2005 to May 1, 2006

St. John's - St. Petersburg-Clearwater

- weekly Saturday service via Halifax November 5, 2005 to May 27, 2006
- weekly Friday service via Toronto November 4, 2005 to May 26, 2006

Moncton - St. Petersburg

- weekly Friday service via Toronto November 4, 2005 to May 26, 2006

Toronto - St. Petersburg

- weekly non-stop Friday service November 4, 2005 to May 26, 2006
