GET AWAY TO TAMPA BAY!

ALLEGIANT AIR ANNOUNCES NONSTOP FLIGHTS FROM PLATTSBURGH, MONTREAL'S U.S. AIRPORT, TO TAMPA BAY FOR $99* ONE-WAY

(PLATTSBURGH, N.Y.)--- North Country and Montreal residents get ready for more sunshine! The low-cost airline, Allegiant Air, today announces new, nonstop jet service to Florida's Tampa Bay area from Plattsburgh International Airport beginning Dec. 20. The low-fare carrier will celebrate the convenient new service to the St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport with sunny introductory fares as low as $99 each way.

With an average 361 days of sunshine each year, the St. Petersburg/Clearwater area is considered the most popular vacation destination on Florida's West Coast. The area was named among the top beaches in the United States and is one of a few destinations to have received the "Blue Wave Award" from the Clean Beaches Council. In addition to pristine beaches, visitors are within minutes of shopping, amazing golf courses and award-winning resort and dining experiences.

"We are extremely pleased to again expand the Allegiant brand of low-fare, nonstop jet service to the North Country and Montreal residents," Maurice J. Gallagher, Jr., president, CEO and Chairman for Allegiant said. "This is an exciting new addition for our airline and our customers as we launch yet another way to get to the fun and sun of Florida and the only nonstop service between the Plattsburgh and Tampa Bay."

The self-proclaimed "Official Airline for Sunshine" will launch the new scheduled service from Plattsburgh International Airport to St. Petersburg-Clearwater International Airport with two flights weekly. With service Wednesday and Saturday, flights will depart Plattsburgh at 6:25 p.m. arriving in Tampa Bay at 9:55 p.m. Flights leaving Tampa Bay will depart at 2:30 p.m. arriving in the Plattsburgh at 5:45 p.m. (all flight times are local.) Allegiant Air began nonstop, low-cost service to Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Nov. 16, 2007 and flights to Orlando, Fla. Feb. 1, 2008.

"St. Petersburg is a great new destination which Montrealers and others have been asking for," states Garry Douglas, President of the Plattsburgh-North Country Chamber of Commerce. "The partnership between Plattsburgh International and Allegiant has been a real success story, and this decision to add new service is a great indication of confidence in our ability to keep tapping the northern New York, southern Quebec and Vermont markets. Onward and upward!"

"The announcement by Allegiant that they are expanding service provided to Plattsburgh International Airport is great news for the airport and the traveling public, both locally and for our neighbors north of the border," Rodney Brown, Deputy County Administrator, stated. "Allegiant provides excellent service and it's clear the demand for air travel to Florida from Plattsburgh continues to be strong. Plattsburgh International Airport is gaining a reputation of being a convenient location for travel to southern destinations and we certainly welcome the recent decision by Allegiant to add St. Petersburg/Tampa as a new destination."

The airline commented market research and input from local community leaders indicate North Country and Montreal residents will welcome the new nonstop flights and low fares to the Tampa Bay area as an alternative to connecting flights and long drives to other airports. Allegiant will utilize 150-seat, MD-80 series, jet-aircraft on the route.

The Allegiant Vacations division of the company will allow customers to double their sunshine fun with complete vacation packages at some of the area's premier resorts, including Alden Beach Resort, Belleview Biltmore, Don CeSar, Hilton Clearwater Beach, Innisbrook Beach Resort, Marriott Suites on Sand Key and Sheraton Sand Key.
