

Flair Adds Low Fare USA Routes

Immediate Release

August 19, 2018

Flair Airlines (Edmonton, AB), Canada's only independent low fare airline today announced it is introducing non-stop flights to six popular U.S. destinations this winter. The new routes will extend Flair's rapidly growing network to Florida's Orlando International Airport, St. Pete-Clearwater (Tampa Bay) and Miami as well as to Palm Springs, Las Vegas and Phoenix-Mesa Airport.

"The majority of our new services concentrate on Edmonton and Winnipeg," said David Tait, Flair's Executive Chairman; "Having brought low fare service to 10 Canadian cities this summer, we are now taking the show on the road and heading south to some of the most popular winter getaway spots: Escaping the great Canadian winter will cost a lot less this year."

For the winter schedule, Flair will expand its fleet by adding Boeing 737-800 aircraft - details of the new fleet plan will be announced in the coming weeks.

"We welcome today's announcement providing exciting new travel options from Winnipeg Richardson International Airport." said Barry Rempel, Winnipeg Airports Authority President and CEO. "I would like to thank Flair for the confidence they have shown in this market as we continue working with carriers to connect Winnipeg with the world."

Flights are now on sale, with the majority of service commencing beginning on December 15th.

Schedule Highlights (new non-stops):

Departure	Destination
Winnipeg	Las Vegas
Winnipeg	Phoenix/Mesa
Winnipeg	Orlando
